

While mysteries remain unsolved

WELSH AMATEUR INTERNATIONAL JOINS WANDERERS

BRIAN LEE announced another important capture this week when he revealed that Welsh Amateur International Geoffrey Anthony has signed for Wycombe Wanderers.

Twenty-two years old Anthony, joined the club last week after being approached by the Wanderers team boss.

An outside-left, he is reputed to be a direct winger, with a number of representative honours, including the Welsh cap he gained last season, and, to quote Lee, "should be a great acquisition".

"His record speaks for itself", commented Lee on Wednesday. Anthony's honours list reads English Colleges, Wales F.A., U.A.U., and British Universities. He has also been attached to Football League side Swansea Town as an amateur.

CUP DEFEAT

Last year, while on a course at Carnegie, Leeds, he played for the local club, which enjoyed a good run in the Amateur Cup until making their exit to eventual beaten finalists, Sutton United.

He has recently moved South to take up a position as teacher in a Chesham school.

Meanwhile, the 'mysteries' associated with Wanderers players at present remain unsolved.

At Chesham United's training session on Tuesday night, none of the Wanderers earmarked by Barry Darvill actually turned up. But Darvill feels that the next two weeks will decide whether any of his former colleagues join him at Dave Bromley, the Wealdstone centre forward.

The destiny of one further Wycombe Wanderers Reserve was settled on Tuesday evening also at the players meeting of Ernest Turners. Young defender, Peter Martin was among four new signings made.

The other three were: Jim Thomsett, formerly Spartan Leaguers, Huntley and Palmers defender, and Ernest Turner cricketer, Terry Walters from Happy Wanderers of the Wycombe Combination, and David Lambourn, younger brother of Turners' Bobby, and ex-Sands Rovers.
